Goodbye Lipo, Hello Ultrashape!

Ultrashape – Lipo Without The Suction continues to make waves in the slimming industry since its official launch in Manila early last year. Tagged as the first non-invasive breakthrough in body contouring, Ultrashape uses an ultrasound beam to breakdown and liquefy fats from outside the body. Promising an average reduction of about 2cm in just one treatment, it effectively reduces fat deposits on multiple body areas such as the tummy, flanks and thighs.

A small amount of fat reduction is just not worth undergoing surgery for. Liposuction usually involves massive body contouring, and is often not recommended when only a few inches of fat have to be removed. Thus, for the majority of people who only need a few touch-ups, Ultrashape offers a much safer alternative. It gives the benefits of liposuction without the risks or side effects, surgical scars and downtime. The result: Smooth, even and shapely curves you can flaunt even without your clothes on!

Due to its increasing popularity, demand for Ultrashape is high often resulting to fully booked appointment schedules from its growing roster of clients. These women have testified – they have finally found the best alternative to liposuction!

Knowing who you are will translate to self-confidence, no matter what shape, form, size or girth you have

IT'S EASY TO SAY, "LOVE YOUR body" no matter what shape, form, size or girth it has. But do people really truly mean it when they throw around that often-used phrase, or is it all just lip service?

The big and the beautiful

Maxine's new branch in Trinoma mall houses styles many full-figured women would dare not wear: puff sleeves, bell sleeves, bright colors, bold prints, horizontal stripes, ruffles, even skinny jeans!

By Irene C. Perez

A LOT OF WOMEN ARE COMING out of the closet—the plus-size closet of predominantly black clothes, that is.

But, first off, let's stop calling it "plus-size." "Full-figured" sounds a lot better, not to mention nicer. C'mon, how many women have the perfect [illegible] figure anyway? Yes, it [illegible], but it's not the end of the world if you don't fit into [illegible] size.

Shirley Enriquez, the lady behind clothing brand Maxine, believes fashion education is the key to full-figure dressing.

"Everyone should be fashionable, but women don't have to be [illegible] by default," she says.

Maxine, maybe we should also change "fat" to "pleasantly plump."

Fashion education

Many voluptuous women are finally [illegible] their [illegible] with puffed-up sleeves for [illegible], more colorful clothes that emphasize their assets and hide their flaws. While women then were insecure about their [illegible], they are now more than happy to bare some skin, show a little bit of cleavage and embrace their inner fashionista.

"If you have a nice, smooth back, wear backless tops; if you have nice legs, wear miniskirts," says Enriquez. "I really don't believe in [illegible] when it comes to full-figure fashion. As long as you're happy with how you look, you're good."

True enough, the first stand-alone Maxine branch in Trinoma mall in QC houses styles many big women would dare not wear: puff sleeves, bell sleeves, bright colors, bold prints, horizontal stripes, ruffles and, ah, skinny jeans!
